Special Awards

International Student Award for the international student who participated successfully in the academic life of the school

Julia Guan

Julia planned to come to this school in 2020. Covid intervened so she completed online study for two and half years before being able to travel here and graduating as planned. Her commitment is commendable.

Rogers Cup for the student with diverse needs who has shown perseverance and effort

Sapphire Jensen

Sapphire is always positive and actively participates in all activities. She supports her fellow classmates and her aroha and kindness is evident in her mahi and interactions with others. Sapphire is also involved in charity work where she is much appreciated.

Tu Tangata Trophy for a student with diverse needs who exemplifies our school motto

Luis Douglas

Luis has brought great mana and enthusiasm to every aspect of his life at Havelock North High School. He has excelled in sport and his academic studies. Luis has also shown leadership and advocacy for others with disabilities including volunteer work.

Tikanga Māori Award for the student who has made an outstanding contribution to tikanga Māori within the school

Ariana Walker

Ko ia he rangatira o āiane. Kei te mahi tika a Ariana ki te kura, ki te hāpori hoki ki te ao Māori. Kei mua ia o te marae ātea kei te karanga ano hoki kei te waiata, ā, ngā mahi o te kapa haka. Kei muri ia i te marae ātea hei manaaki ngā tāngata i tōna mahi pai. Ariana leads from the front as kaikaranga, kaitātaki wahine, and kaiāwhina. She ensures tikanga is adhered to in the front and behind the scenes of every kaupapa. Ariana has lead Māori kaupapa throughout our kura instigating the addition of the tino rangatiratanga and te whakaminenga flags. Nōreira, ka waiho hei ahua tuarua i a ia.

Premier Sports Award for the student who has made an outstanding contribution to the sporting life of the school

Tayla Hook

Tayla has excelled in surf lifesaving, canoe polo and squash. She is both regionally and nationally ranked in surf lifesaving, an eastern squash representative and team coach and captain of the school squash team. For canoe polo she is co-captain of the senior girl's canoe polo team which gained first place regionally and second place at the national canoe polo championships.

Premier Sports Award for the student who has made an outstanding contribution to the sporting life of the school

Havelock North High School

Senior Prizegiving

Thomas Potts

Thomas was selected for the New Zealand Secondary School's orienteering team to compete in Australia where he gained three placings. He gained that selection after a successful orienteering season both regionally and nationally. Thomas is also involved in 1st XI Hockey, Adventure Racing, Road Racing and Athletics.

Premier Cultural Award for the student who has made an outstanding contribution to the cultural life of the school

Alexis Ormond

Alexis is a leader of the Cultural Committee. She is also a member of Colla Voce, Voix de Femmes and Havelock Singers. Alexis is also involved in Debating, including adjudicating debates, Showquest, Rockquest and the Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival. Her contribution to Debating and the Model United Nations has been immense.

Premier Cultural Award for the student who has made an outstanding contribution to the cultural life of the school

Josh Folkers

Josh is a member of Colla Voce, Havelock Singers, Future Prospect and the Concert Band. He has participated in the 48hr Film Festival, the Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival and is recognised for his service to the Cultural Committee. This year Josh was selected to be a member of the prestigious New Zealand Secondary Students' Choir. He is also the joint winner of the Haddock Arts Award for excellence in the Arts for prize in Drama, for which he receives Flight, and distinction in Media Studies.

Gus Klingender

Gus is a Cultural Committee leader. He has participated in Rockquest, Showquest, the Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival and the 48hr Film Festival. He is a member of Colla Voce, Havelock Singers, Future Prospect, Stage Band and Concert Band. His contribution to the musical life of the school has been much appreciated. Gus has also been selected for the Shakespeare Globe Centre of NZ Young Shakespeare Company and will travel to the Globe to perform next year. He is also the joint winner of the Haddock Arts Award for excellence in the Arts for prize in Musicianship and distinction in Drama.

Citizenship Award

The following students receive a citizenship award. We thank the Havelock North High School Foundation and PTA for their sponsorship of these awards.

Lattey Family Prize for the student who best typifies the school motto 'aim to excel'; 'whaia te iti kahurangi'

Oscar Holm

Oscar has been an exceptional leader of Miro House this year. Along with this he has captained the 1st XI Hockey team and has umpired for both school and club hockey. Oscar is also a valued member of many choirs and bands, and a member of the International Committee and Forum. His tutoring of younger students is just another example of his immense contribution to our school.

Craig Foss Cup for the student who has made a significant contribution to a school committee

Martelize Nel

Martelize has worked tirelessly as a leader of the Environmental Committee. She has also contributed greatly to the concept of our school being an Enviro School. Martelize has been totally committed to making a difference and has realised that by being organised, personable and always leading by example.

Ron Shakespeare Trophy for the student who has contributed to the community

Tayla Hook

Tayla has been a fantastic deputy house leader for Rātā House. From the outset, Tayla has exhibited a natural inclination for leadership, not through loud declarations but through consistent, thoughtful actions. Her ability to lead by example rather than by asserting authority has made a significant impact on our house. She has worked tirelessly, guiding peers with a calm and steady demeanour that fosters respect and cooperation. Tayla has also shown leadership in her many sporting roles.

Kohatu Humarie Award for the student who contributes to harmony within the school

Molly Simon

Molly has been a fantastic leader of Miro House this year. Throughout the last five years Molly has taken part in virtually every house event. Her enthusiasm is infectious. She leads from the front by always being willing to help, encouraging her peers and being an excellent role model for aspiring leaders. Molly is humble, well organised and very much respected by her peers and younger students.

He taonga o Te Manaaki Tangata. This taonga is gifted by Te Kapa Haka of Maungawharau to the student who, humbly, cares for people with kindness and gratitude.

Ariana Walker

Ariana is a leader who genuinely values, and cares, about others no matter their age or circumstance. This has been very evident over the last five years with her involvement in our kapa haka rōpū. She is a wonderful role model and we will very much miss her presence next year. He wahine māia.

Senior Prizegiving

Staff Prize

Becs Cadenhead

Becs is an excellent leader of the International Committee where she initiated new ideas to ensure international students made an easy transition into our school. Along with this Becs has run regular and well organised debating workshops in her own time but one of her greatest contributions has been her ability to get other students enthusiastically and positively involved in our school.

Alexis Ormond

Alexis' contribution to our school has been immense. She is a very effective leader, a singer and an actress. Her dedication to debating has seen her support debating at another local school in her own time. Alexis has also managed her wide range of extracurricular interests along with her academic commitments. The school thanks Alexis for her service to our school.

Senior Prizegiving

Outstanding Citizenship Award

The following students receive an outstanding citizenship award. We thank the Havelock North High School Foundation and the PTA for their sponsorship of these awards.

Whittaker Prize

William Leary

Will has given service to our school throughout the last five years in his role in as an outstanding member of the 'technical crew'. Will has given generously of his time and skills whether that be for students or staff. He is always kind and supportive, humble and reliable. Will is a valued citizen of Havelock North High School.

Adam Wall

Adam has given outstanding service to our school throughout the last five years through his contribution to the 'technical crew'. Adam's expertise has been integral to the success of many school events and his commitment has been evident in the number of juniors he has mentored and trained. Adam is a valued citizen of Havelock North High School.

John Kneebone Memorial Lions Award

Gus Klingender

Gus demonstrates his citizenship by being trustworthy, kind and supportive. He has voluntarily donated his notable talents to help his peers and to support many school events. His involvement in the cultural life of the school is outstanding and his dedication to Miro House has been much appreciated. We thank Gus for the contribution he has made to our school.

Child on a Swing Award

Olivia Walter

Olivia has impressed many through her maturity, respectful attitude and superb organisational skills. As a deputy house leader of Miro House and a leader of the Community Services Committee she has often demonstrated her positivity and inclusiveness. Olivia is the ultimate team player and we thank her for the contribution she has made to our school.

Senior Prizegiving

Outstanding Leadership Award

The following students receive an outstanding leadership award. We thank the Havelock North High School Foundation and PTA for their sponsorship of these awards.

King Award

Josh Folkers

Josh has been described as thoughtful, kind, supportive and well organised. Josh has also needed to be very resilient. His ability to motivate, and communicate his enthusiasm, to others has been evident in his significant involvement in the musical life of our school, and as an actor, director and house leader. Josh is an outstanding leader and we thank him for his service to our school.

Rei Hamon Cup

Ruby Langford

Always enthusiastic and supportive Ruby has also been described as warm, inclusive and a bright spark of positive energy! These skills have been well demonstrated in her role as a house leader, through her considerable involvement in sport, as a member of student committees and as a leader within her form class. Ruby has proven herself to be an outstanding leader and we thank her for her service to our school.

Foundation Award for Head Boy

Austen Jones

He tane mana kura a Austen. Austen has been a charismatic and committed Head Boy who communicates well and epitomises our school motto, whāia te iti kahurangi, ki te tuohu koe, me he maunga teitei. Austen is incredibly supportive of his fellow students and has an insightful, measured, and thoughtful approach. As co-leader of the Forum group he has engaged with good humour and has acted as a role model for the whole school. He is a natural leader and we thank him for the contribution he has made as Head Boy 2024.

Foundation Award for Head Girl

Ariana Walker

He ngākau māhaki a Ariana. Ariana is articulate, magnetic, incredibly hardworking, and genuine. Whakanuia te tangata ringa raupā. There is nothing that she would ask someone to do that she would not be willing to do herself. Ariana has been an outstanding Head Girl and representative of Havelock North High School. As co-leader of the Forum group, she has been instrumental in organising many events throughout the year and was the driver of the group making the Year 13 gift of the painted tāhuhu in Kahurangi a reality. We have no doubt that the Head Girl position is only the first of many leadership opportunities that lie ahead of Ariana and thank her for the contribution she has made as Head Girl 2024.
