

DOUG THOMAS AT THE START OF A COACHING SESSION

Coaching Sessions

Thanks to Doug Thomas for taking coaching sessions over the last month. These have proved very popular with those that have participated and for next season will see "Roslyn on the Rise" even more.

A game last month resulted in this situation after an end. Three bowls, two from one team and one from the other, touching the jack.

The result: The end counts but no points are awarded.

Twilight Bowls

This started up again on 29th January. Six teams of four participate each night but there is always room for someone to make up some numbers in some of the teams.

We normally have a $2 sausage sizzle or something similar running. The bar is open also.

Subs

We believe our subs are as good a deal as any club in the world. Big call!

$20 Membership and then add on any other activities you are involved in as follows:

$80 Interclub and/or club Champion of Champion playoffs.

$40 Twilight Bowls (or $5 a night)

$20 Gardening

$20 Brewing Club (contact Jason Jewiss).

Please pay into the club's bank account which is:

Centre and National Events

Entries are now open for the National Under 23 singles tournament, which is being played in Christchurch on Sat, 30th and Sun, 31st March. Entries close on Fri, 15th March at 5pm.

We are organising with the Taieri club to have some or all of the last round of Saturday morning women's games, scheduled for 23rd March, to be played at another time. Some of our players involved in rugby will be out of town at a tournament. The morning of the 16th March may be a possibility but so are some midweek nights. The games are scheduled to be played at the Taieri club.

IN THIS ISSUE: TWILIGHT TO RECOMMENCE

Reserves for Interclub

This half of the season looks a little tight for players as two have shifted out of town, two are overseas and one is unavailable following an operation.

Geoff Simons is keen to hear from you if you can play the odd Saturday morning or afternoon as a fill in player.

Community Night

After three successful Community nights this season one more remains. This will take place on Fri, 15th March at 6pm. A good night for all Members and Honorary Members to get together, play some bowls and have a catch up.

Champion of Champions

These events are progressing. With some winners found.

In the Women's Pairs the champions are:

Sophia Calteaux and Ann McWhirter

The Triples champions are:

Ian Simpson, Jim Duke and Doug Marshall

Men's Singles: three semi-finalists found.

Women's Singles: three semi-finalists found.

Men's Pairs: one semi-finalist known

Junior women's Singles and Fours have not commenced.

Interclub 2019

Again thanks to the efforts of all involved we fielded teams in interclub so far this season. It is reality we all cannot be there every interclub day so thanks to those that helped by playing more than they may have intended to and especially to those that filled in.

Note the number of bowls used and the number of ends being played. If the opposition insist on playing something different stand your ground.

Saturdays 2019

Mornings start gam –Men and Women's Sevens – triples (two bowls) and two pairs (three bowls) – all 21 ends. Afternoons 1.30pm – Optional Mixed Triples (OMT) three teams each week. Two bowls, 21 ends. On Centre Event days three teams of Optional Mixed Fours and then playing as Two Pairs (four in a team). All games 10 ends.

For away games meet at club house at least 30min before. If travelling direct from your home to an away venue, make sure others in your team know.

Always a spare slot at Roslyn so everyone gets a game each Saturday.

Roslyn 500

Women from the section two grade and from clubs that do not field a full women's team will be invited to play in the Roslyn 500, on Monday, 25th March (Otago Anniversary Day).

Entry is $10 for a full days play with the men undertaking the catering. A number of short games are played. The entries are from individuals as the participants on arrival are then in mixed up fours teams.

It is called the Roslyn 500 because the intention each year is to give out $500 worth of prizes.

Roslyn Bowling Club AGM

ROSLYN BOWLING CLUB.

TO THE EDITOR. Sir,—In reading over the account of the annual meeting of the Roslyn Bowling Club in your issue of Monday I was rather surprised at the club seriously discussing what our worthy president of the Bowling Association had said to Mr Crawford re penalising the club if they rejoined the association. Mr Horsburgh was only "getting at" the Roslyn members. There has been no meeting of the association where the subject has been discussed, therefore the president could not seriously have meant what was said. Mr Horsburgh and Mr Crawford are two of the most genial bowlers you could meet with, and. I feel sure that neither would do anything to injure that goodfellowship which should always exist between bowlers—where it does not exist the whole charm of the game is removed. Every club has a right to exercise its own opinion with regard to the doings of the association; and although it is much to be regretted the Roslyn Club saw fit to withdraw from the association, I feel sure that now they have rejoined, the association will extend the right hand of goodfellowship to the Roslyn members just the same as if they had never left the association; in fact, I think the association will be stronger than ever.—I am, Sec., G. B. Smith, Member of the Association. Burnside, June 26.

The longest password ever

We laugh -- but her I. D. is safe. During a recent password audit by a company, it was found that an employee was using the following password: "MickeyMinniePlutoHueyLouieDeweyDonaldGoofySacramento" When asked why she had such a long password, she rolled her eyes and said: "Hello! It has to be at least 8 characters and include at least one capital."
