

TABLE TENNIS NEW ZEALAND

Table Tennis New Zealand is registered with the New Zealand Police to have personnel of the organisation, its Associations and their Clubs checked for criminal histories that may put the community and our organisation at risk.

Process for Checks: The following process is to be followed with regard to Police checks:

1. The person having the check completed on them must complete Section 2 and Section 3 of the attached form.
2. A trusted referee (Chair or secretary) from within your Association must sight photo ID (<https://www.police.govt.nz/sites/default/files/publications/user-guide-to-pvs-vetting-request-consent-form.pdf>) and complete the "Evidence of Identity" Section of the attached form.
3. Once completed, the form should be returned to Table Tennis New Zealand, ttnz@tabletennis.nz. TTNZ will then register person through the online police vetting website and receive response through this website
4. TTNZ will forward notice and details of the response to the requesting Association, once received from the NZ Police and dispose of the consent forms and any copies of identification documentation no later than 3 months after conclusion of vetting process in accordance with Privacy Act 1993.
5. There is no limit to the roles Associations may want vetted. However, it is strongly recommended that all coaches and personnel who deal with children undergo a Police check prior to undertaking any activities.
