Terms & Conditions

The Music Department provides rehearsal studios, administration and communicating with itinerant teachers, parents and students. If you have any enquiries, feel free to email the music office.

All itinerant lessons are taught by contracted teachers who teach at different schools. Therefore, they only teach on specific timetabled days at Rosmini College.

Absentees:

When a student is absent from his music lesson, the music admin and itinerant teacher must be notified prior to the lesson by email to the Student Services/ Attendance at absentees@rosmini.school.nz Or Music Office.

If a student misses two lessons per term without informing the Music Department or for any cases OR if students misses three lessons per term, the lessons will immediately be terminated. The student may appeal the decision through the HOD if there are extenuating circumstances.

Requirement:

All students who receive itinerant music lessons, MUST be involved in at least ONE of music groups at Rosmini College. Failure to do so will result in termination of the student's music lessons.
