

Cadbury Volunteer of the Month

The Cadbury Volunteer of the Month initiative aims to recognise and reward current volunteers who dedicate countless hours to our sport and make a lasting impact on the entire netball community. In addition, we want to inspire new volunteers to our sport.

The Process

1) Nominations

- A volunteer can be nominated by a Zone, Centre, Club/School, player or supporter via the official Cadbury nomination form on the NNZ website: <http://www.netballnz.co.nz/get-involved/volunteering>

2) Recognise and Reward

- Nominations received will be shared with the Centre that the volunteer is affiliated to
- The Centre will draw* their winner, who will be recognised** at the Centre as the Cadbury Volunteer of the Month
- The Centre is to advise NNZ of their winner each month
- NNZ will recognise each Centre's Cadbury Volunteer of the Month winner with a Cadbury goodie pack and email a thanks message to all nominees

*There are no specific criteria associated with the Cadbury Volunteer of the Month, so a random draw is recommended. However, the Centre should be comfortable endorsing the winner using existing knowledge of the volunteer, the Centre can also rely on the knowledge from their Zone or appropriate references from respected Netball Centre members.

**Centres can choose to recognise their Cadbury Volunteer of the Month in their own way, over and above what NNZ and Cadbury will be doing, for example, a social media post, noticeboard poster or maybe a shout out over the sound system.

3) Inspire

- One of the Centre Cadbury Volunteer of the Month winners will be drawn each month by NNZ to have their volunteer story featured on the NNZ website, On-Court electronic newsletter and social channels
- Prior to the story being published, Zones will be contacted to endorse this volunteer
